

Independence Banquet and Dance

Initially, The Annual Independence Banquet & Dance was seen as the premier function of the Association's social calendar and was the leading fund-raiser. Gradually, however, it ceased to be lucrative, even though it often attracted some important personalities from Bridgetown and Ottawa. In 1981, for example, the keynote speaker was the Hon Mr Lindsay Bolden, a member of the Barbados Labour Party cabinet. In 1984, it was the Hon Mr Louis Tull, Barbados' Minister of External Affairs, who gave the keynote speech; and in 1982, His Excellency Mr Lester B. Whitehead Barbados' High Commissioner to Canada, delivered the feature address.

2013 BAW Events Calendar

January 6th - Monthly Meeting

February 3rd - Monthly Meeting

March 3rd - Monthly Meeting

April 7th - Monthly Meeting

May 5th - Monthly Meeting

May 17th - 20th - NCBAC's Conference (Toronto)

June 2nd - Monthly Meeting

June 22th - Bajan Night (Glenwood Community Centre)

July - No Monthly meeting

July 28th - Barbados Picnic (Hyland Park)

August - No monthly meeting

August 18th - Bajan Night Appreciation Barbecue (Hyland Park)

September 8th Monthly meeting

September 14th Workshop

October 6th - Monthly Meeting

November 3rd - Monthly Meeting

November 16th - Independence Dinner & Dance

December 1st - Monthly Meeting

The Barbados Association of Winnipeg, Inc. P.O. Box 2172 Winnipeg, Manitoba, CA R3C 3R5

http://www.bawpg.com/

Barbados Association of Winnipeg

January 2013 Newsletter

Table of Contents

- 1: Cover Sheet
- 2: A New Year

Barbados 2013 Events

- 3: Second Time Around NCBAC Conference 2013
- 4: Bajan Night 2013
- 5: Barbados Banquet and Dance 2013
- 6: 2013 BAW Events Calendar

A New Year

Guess what? The New Year isn't as important as everyone is making it seem.

As human beings we like order and as a result we have created a calendar which puts the precious time we have been given into brackets. We have created compartments for our lives numbered in days, week, months and years. As a result, every time the "New Year" roles around we place specific emphasis on being better people.

Everyone is thinking about their resolutions for the New Year. They are thinking about what went wrong in 2012 and how they fix it in 2013. Some are thinking about what went right in 2012 and how they can continue to grow and enjoy success when the clock strikes 12 on January 1st 2013. However, I would implore you all to accept that the life you live has not and will not change significantly when you start dating your documents differently. This is the same life in the same space and therefore I am urging everyone to make their resolutions constantly.

The greatest gift we have been giving is our minds. Our free will makes us the rulers of the planet and our ability to grow, to evolve, is admirable beyond imagining. So take the bull by the horns and start the process now and keep it going.

Your resolutions should be the reflection of a life-long journey focused on excellence.

Barbados 2013 Events

Open House Program

Date (To be confirmed): January 2013 - April

Visitors are given access into some of the island's rich historic homes that usually remain closed to the general public. It occurs every Wednesday afternoon from 1430-1730.

Barbados Jazz Festival

Date (To be confirmed): January 2013 Local, national and international jazz performers take to the stage for this annual event, which attracts music fans from all over the world. Concerts take place at various venues across the island, including Sunbury Plantation House and Farley Hill National Park. Venue: Various venues.

Venue: Bridgetown, St Michael

Holetown Festival

Date (To be confirmed): February 2013 The week-long celebrations marks the arrival of the first settlers at Holetown on February 17, 1627. The festival provides visitors with an Venue: Various venues. introduction to Barbadian culture and traditions through a varied program that includes concerts, live music, street parades, beauty pageants, craft fairs, historical exhibitions, sporting competitions and food and drink events. Venue: Holetown

British Airways Football Legends Invitational Tournament 2011 Date (To be confirmed): June 2013

It's all in honour of charity, with the money raised going to National Sports Council Primary Schools Programme, in aid of sports in Caribbean schools.

Venue: Kensington Oval, Bridgetown,

Website: www.barbadosfootball-legends.com

Crop Over Festival

Date (To be confirmed): July 2013 - August

Crop Over is Barbados' biggest festival. Dating back to the 1780s when the island was one of the biggest sugar producers in the world, the end of the sugar cane harvest was always celebrated with a big party, and the tradition continues today with added extravagance and flambovance. The festival culminates with the ceremonial delivery of the last sugar canes of the harvest and the crowning of the carnival king and gueen. Events continue for five weeks and revellers can expect a heavy mix of live music, dancing, carnivals, markets, cultural presentations and more.

Barbados Food, Wine and Rum Festival Date (To be confirmed): November 2013

Spanning four days, this culinary event brings together the very best in food, wine, rum and culture.

Website: www.foodwinerum.com

Barbados International Film Festival Date (To be confirmed): November 2013 -

December 2013

This annual festival brings together the best of world cinema and international film culture and provides a major showcase for the exhibition of the Caribbean, Latin America and worldwide independent film.

Venue: Various venues.

Run Barbados

Date (To be confirmed): December 2013

The Run Barbados festival takes place annually on the first weekend in December. The event comprises a 10k, a half-Marathon and a Marathon

Website: www.runbarbados.org

Second Time Around

It was voting time in the U.S.A. again As the race for the presidency began. Mitt Romney, the Republican opponent Thought he had a chance, and was Determined to unseat the Democratic President. So up and down the country he pranced Holding babies and kissing grannies just for votes And the same time, at Obama he gloats.

My television set I feared to watch As time ticked by so slowly, tick, tock, tick, tock. Barrack's opponent was closing in, ready for the kill It was like a game of cat and mouse As Romney so badly wants to Claim the white house.

Oh Barack, Barack, how I squirmed As Romney votes seemed to be standing firm. My television set was now turned off. For Barack, I could not handle those words "lost". I sent a pray up above For God to send him down his love.

And pretty soon all hell broke loose And someone called with the good news, History has repeated itself once more Barack Obama has conquered another 'Four" As President and Commander in Chief, he stated his claim Yes. He's back in the white house once again.

Despite all the fury and the logos they displayed Such as "no drama, Obama" Or "too cool for school" I'll just add mine to the pack,

"You're back, Obama, and that's a fact"

Shirley Alleyne

Nov/2012

NCBAC Conference 2013

This year the NCBAC will be celebrating its' 29th annual conference. Hosted by NCBAC Central Toronto from May 17th - 20th 2013.

Conference events include a welcome reception, workshops, a banquet, bus tour of Toronto and more!

Full registration is $225.00 which covers the Saturday morning's breakfast, all workshops, Saturday's lunch, Saturday's Banquet, and bus tour + lunch and the Cultural Show on Sunday. Please register with your local Association.

Bajan Night our signature fundraising event has been held each year since 1979. Bajan night is held on the 4th Saturday in June, at which guest enjoy a fabulous Bajan dinner, live entertainment, a sampling of the Barbadian cuisine, dancing and of course, good Bajan

Everyone is invited to join us at this annual gathering of Bajans, Canadians, West Indians and all who love Barbados.